SPEAKER PROFILES

#IFADiNNovationTalk no.7 – Wednesday 27 October 2021

Countdown to the SDGs: Employing Results, Evidence and Targeted Investments

DOMINIK ZILLER

Vice-President, IFAD

Dominik Ziller is Vice-President of IFAD. He gives strategic direction to the institution, and promotes corporate approaches and solutions. He has direct oversight of the budget, quality assurance and ethics offices. Prior to joining IFAD, Ziller was Director General for International Development Cooperation for International Development Policy at the German Federal Ministry for Economic Cooperation and Development. His responsibilities included the European Union's development cooperation, United Nations, World Bank Group, regional development banks, OECD, development processes of the G7 and the G2O, the World Trade Organization and topics of financing for development and effectiveness/transparency. During Germany's G2O Presidency, Ziller chaired the Development Working Group. Previously, he held various senior positions at the BMZ, including head of the Directorate for Asia and head of the Budget Division. Between 2011 and 2013, he worked for Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusam-menarbeit (GIZ), where he was a member of the Executive Management Committee. He holds a Law Degree from the Ludwig Maximilian Universität München and Practical Law Degree from the Federal German State of Bavaria.

MAXIMO TORERO CULLEN

Chief Economist, Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO).

Maximo Torero Cullen joined the Food and Agriculture Organization in January 2019 as Assistant Director-General for the Economic and Social Development Department. Prior to joining FAO, he was the World Bank Group Executive Director for Argentina, Bolivia, Chile Paraguay, Peru and Uruguay since November 2016 and before the Bank Mr. Torero led the Division of the Markets, Trade, and Institutions at the International Food Policy Research Institute (IFPRI). His major research work lies mostly in analysing poverty, inequality, importance of geography and assets (private or public) in explaining poverty, and in policies oriented towards poverty alleviation based on the role played by infrastructure, institutions, and on how technological breakthroughs (or discontinuities) can improve the welfare of households and small farmers. His experience encompasses Latin America, Sub-Saharan Africa, and Asia.

Mr. Torero, a national of Peru, holds a Ph.D. and a Master's degree in Economics from the University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA), and a Bachelor's degree in Economics from the University of the Pacific, Lima, Peru. He is a professor on leave at the University of the Pacific, Perú, and an Alexander von Humboldt Fellow at University of Bonn, Germany, and has also published in top journals (QJE, Econometric Theory, AER-Applied Microeconomics, RSTAT, Labor Economics and many other top journals). Mr. Torero has received in 2000 the Georg Foster Research Fellowship of the Alexander von Humboldt Foundation, won the Award for Outstanding Research on Development given by the Global Development Network, twice, in 2000 and in 2002, and received the Chevalier de l'Ordre du Mérite Agricole in 2014.

RUGGERO ARICO Head of Institutional Affair. Enel Green Power

Ruggero Aricò graduated in Law at the University of Messina, Italy in 1999 and he was admitted to the Bar in 2002. He joined Enel in 2000 at the Institutional and International Affairs Department. In 2003, he moved to Brussels to manage the institutional relations with the European Union, in particular he worked very closely to the European Parliament. After 5 years, he moved to Moscow as Head of External Relations for Russia & CIS Countries and in 2010, he moved to Algiers as Head of External Relations for Algeria. Since March 2016, he is the new global Head of Institutional Affairs for Europe, Africa, Asia and Oceania in Enel Green Power, the biggest renewable energy private company in the world. Ruggero has an extensive experience in international relations, governmental affairs, energy and environment regulation and legislation. He spent most of his life outside Italy, he speaks fluently several foreign languages and he is often invited worldwide as visiting professor in universities and as conference speaker and moderator. He is also Vice President of "Confindustria Assafrica & Mediterraneo" (the General Confederation of Italian Industry association for the development of Italian businesses in Africa, the Mediterranean and the Middle East), Board Member of the Italia-ASEAN Association (the association that represents and supports Italian companies in all sectors with business interests in the ASEAN countries) and Member of the Coalition for Action Steering Committee at IRENA (the International Renewable Energy Association).

LAUREN PHILIPS

Lead Advisor, Operational Policy and Results Division (OPR), IFAD

Lauren Phillips currently leads a team focused on development results and resources at IFAD, where she has worked since 2015. She is an international political economist specialized in development as well as finance; she has published on subjects related to Latin American development, financial markets and politics, US financialization and policy preferences, European politics and sovereign borrowing, and global governance. From 2008-2014 she was an Assistant Professor in the Department of International Relations at the London School of Economics. She has also worked in finance, political risk and for a large NGO. Her undergraduate and master's degrees are from Stanford University; her PhD is from the London School of Economics.

NATALIA TOSCHI Head of the Funding Unit, Treasury Services Division, IFAD.

Senior Policy officer.

Prior to joining IFAD, Natalia has worked in Banca IMI (now Intesa San Paolo) in ALM, risk management and in the trading division. Before that she worked in the EuroMTS bond trading platform in the Market Monitoring team.

She worked as Finance and Budget Network coordinator of the CEB Secretariat in Geneva, where she launched, amongst other things, the joint UN approach to managing the After Service Health Insurance (ASHI) portfolios. In IFAD, she covered several roles in finance, including Investment manager and Head of the Financial Planning Unit. She also has an experience in the Programme Department as

SMITA LUTHRA NAKHOODA

Senior Results Management Specialist. Strategy, Results and Aid Effectiveness Division. ADB

Smita Nakhooda is a Senior Results Management Specialist in the Strategy, Results and Aid Effectiveness Division, which serves as ADB's focal point on the Sustainable Development Goals, where she leads this area of work. She leads ADB's corporate reporting on the SDGs, and a range of knowledge and capacity building work to support SDG implementation in the region. Prior to joining ADB, Ms. Nakhooda was a Senior Research Fellow at the Overseas Development Institute (ODI) in London, the UK where she led the team working on climate change and finance. Her work focused on strengthening the effectiveness of finance for environmentally sustainable development. Previously she was a Senior Associate at the World Resources Institute in Washington DC. Ms. Nakhooda is an Indian national, holding an M.Sc. in Environmental Policy and Regulation from the London School of Economics, and a B.A. in Government and Environmental Studies from Dartmouth College, USA.

BELISSA ROJAS

Impact Measurement and Management Lead, SDG Impact Team, UNDP.

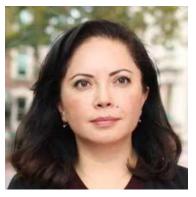

Belissa has over 15 years of experience in the international development sector, advising private sector organizations, impact investors, development banks, and foundations on how to professionalize their management and measurement practices. Belissa is the CEO and founder of Impacto-consulting and focuses primarily on strategic planning, general management, sustainability, and impact measurement and management. She advises investors on how to measure and manage their environmental and social impacts. Her projects included working with IDB Lab on the design of an ESG & impact measurement and management (IMM) tool for early-stage ventures with the potential to generate impact on a large scale, assessing ES Risk reporting best practices for DFIs, co-leading an initiative to support venture capital funds in the development of their IMM practices with IMP Impact Frontiers initiative, among others. She is also leading an initiative with On Think Tanks (OTT) and International Development Research Centre (IDRC) to bring cross-sector knowledge, policy, and economic expertise from local think tanks to the impact investing industry in Latin America and Africa.

GLADYS H. MORALES

Senior Innovation Adviser, Change, Delivery and Innovation Unit (CDI), Office of the President and the Vice President, International Fund for Agricultural Development (IFAD)

Gladys H. Morales is Senior Innovation Adviser at the Change Delivery and Innovation Unit at the Office of the President and the Vice-President of IFAD. She has led the digital transformation of Government and UN agencies' projects in Latin America, Asia and Europe. She is also familiar with the startup eco-system having worked in a management position for a digital advertising startup while she was living in Indonesia and founding her own startup in Italy. Before joining IFAD, Gladys was an Advisor at the International Poverty Reduction Centre in China (IPRCC) where she led the design of digital platforms and established partnerships and knowledge networks for the Global Poverty Reduction and Inclusive Growth (GPIG) Portal. She is the Regional Ambassador in Italy of the Global Blockchain Business Council (GBBC). Gladys is a graduate from the Executive Programme on Digital Business Leadership at Columbia Business School, Columbia University in New York; and the Executive Programme in Artificial Intelligence at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT) in Cambridge, Massachussets. Gladys also has a Master in Development Economics and International Cooperation from University of Rome, Tor Vergata and a Bachelor of Science in Foreign Service and International Economics from Georgetown University.