Independent Office of Evaluation

The IOE
Experience

The value of communicating independently and engaging effectively

Dr Alexander Voccia
Coordinator, ECU, IOE
IFAD

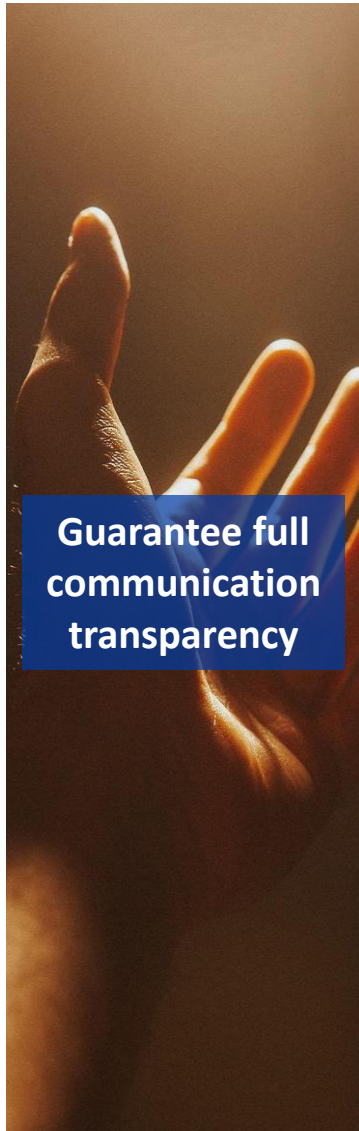

For the first time in its over forty-year history, IOE communicates with full independence, in a move that bears few precedents among evaluation offices of IFIs and UN entities.

How we moved forward

Guarantee full communication transparency

Independently manage all content production, publishing, display and presentation

Right products reach the right people

Most relevant messages brought to the forefront

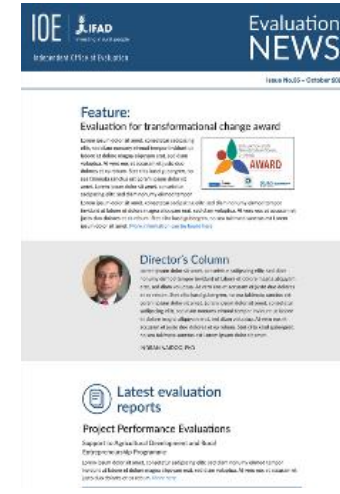

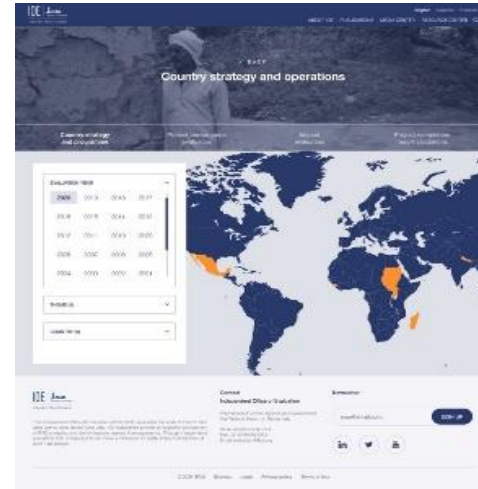

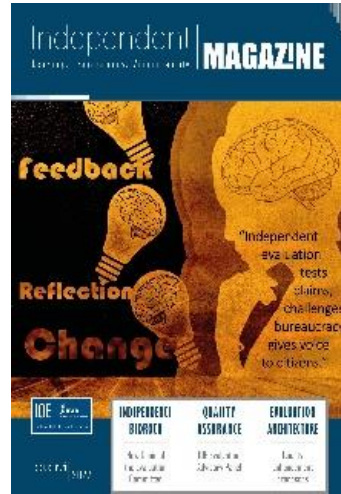

Foster greater user engagement by speaking to the core of what IOE's audience looks for

Present an immersive experience, spanning the full spectrum of the evaluation function

On 29 - 31 May 2023, the Independent Office of Evaluation of IFAD (IOE) will host and fund the 38th annual meeting of the International Research Group for Policy and Program Evaluation, known as INTEVAL. The event will take place at IFAD headquarters, in Rome. INTEVAL is a multidisciplinary constellation of world-renown expert evaluation leaders and distinguished authors.

A total of 49 members will participate in the 2023 INTEVAL annual meeting, 39 of whom will attend in person while 10 will join the discussions remotely on-line. Authors of recently published volumes will present their works to the meeting, during which proposals for future books will also be discussed. The event will also feature a seminar titled 'Reflections on evaluating complex organizations'.
